

Messages from the feathers at ESCRI UDHR70 meeting

- In French “Declaration des Droits de l'homme”! Please change it!
- Environmental rights are important to sustainable development.
- The right to provide education to everyone in society!
- The right to be you!
- Its a battle, nothing will be yielded up. Fight for minimum rights.
- AMICUR 25
- No discrimination
- La lucha continua
- Leave No One Behind
- To Lerance
- Equity of opportunity for all “All can fly higher when all can participate”
- Its not enough to just declare human rights, they must be actively put in practice
- No one is free when others are oppressed
- Why are ESCR seen as less important than others?
- Education for all (Article 26) Adult Literacy, numeracy and digital skills are essential
- Participation in society, the right to be included
- Important to keep the indivisibility of rights in our law and policy implementation
- We must continue the struggle to promote equality and human rights
- Adequate and accessible social welfare for all honours the rights of all and human dignity
- The ultimate duty of upholding human rights is with the state. We all must hold them to account.
- Social inclusion needs to be rights based and all programmes informed by the UDHR
- The UDHR reminds us of a shared agreement and a shared commitment to the world we want to live in. From recognising our inherent value as humans to the rights and responsibilities we share.

- This land is your land, this land is my land - From a Roma Woman
- We're all duty-bearers
- Resepect and acceptance of diversity
- Education is knowledge, knowledge is power.
- Until everyone is housed and fed and ducated and has work the just fight goes on.
- Everyone does not just deserve aan education, they deserve an equal shot at education.
- Dignity and respect for all by all.
- Equity, not just equality
- I will continue to fight for human rights, I will continue to fight for gender equality
- Solidarity and Inclusion.
- People should be treated equally as individuals
- Lets become duty bearers together - Pierre
- Divisibility, not indivisibility
- Proper housing, equality for all
- for article 25 to be put in the constitution. 2) for community work to be re-instated
- Democracy is for everybody, not just the few
- Build declaration into our constitution
- 70 years on this declaration is still very powerful and holds true. We have a lot of work to do. Women's rights are human rights.
- Justice for everybody.
- The UDHR is the basis for ESCR at international, European (European Social Charter; Fundamental Charter of the Lisbon Treaty etc) and at national level (Bunreacht na hEireann) all too often ignored or breached by responsible authorities.
- Make housing a right 2) Make changes to direct provision to ensure people have a right to dignity, respect and privacy. As it stands it is in breach of human rights.

- Freedom, personal assistance
- Remember those who have no voice.
- Make education practical to real life. System change. Life coach, mentor system developed across all aspects of the education system
- Poverty is degrading treatment perpetrated by our government through neglect and omission as they whitewash their image through referencing UDHR
- Light
- Resources needed in community groups and community development to realise rights
- Article 25: Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.
- Action! Action! European Parliament elections in May 2019 is an opportunity to put Human Rights on the EU agenda.
- Celebrate people's differences.
- Love
- Everyone needs light.
- Justice and equality for all in the world
- No one needs to suffer in this day and age
- Less discrimination in schools for kids. All should be equal.
- End poverty in all society.
- Are we doing enough? Start at your own front door.
- Education shall be directed to the full development of the human personality. Young people should have a say in things involving them - education.
- Please treat single parent with respect and respect their children.
- Control and access to housing and public land needs to be returned to the people.
- Human rights need to be codified in laws, regulations and programmes.
